I agree to donate the above pieces to Oneday Dreams for the fundraising auction if selected. I retain full copyright ownership of my images. I give permission for my pieces to be used for promotion of the event as they see fit.

Please read the requirements for all artwork submissions;

- Preferably min size 16x20
- Max size of piece 30x40
- Must be the owner of work donated
- Dropped off by Oct 1
- Must be ready to hang and completed
- Framed and matted or minimum framed
- Canvas prints must have finished wrap sides
- Piece must have piece name, artist name on it
- * Include a short bio on yourself
- Properly mounted, matted and framed

Submit a digital image (JPG) of each piece for selection with name of piece in title for clarity. Tell us about the piece, its story and meaning to you. Please make sure it is a high-quality image as it will, if selected, be used in the virtual catalogue for the auction. There are only 65 spots available. Selection deadline is September 1st, 2026. Notification, if selected, will be by September 12th and delivery will be October 1st, 2026, as promotion location displays start mid October.

Oneday Dreams reserves the right select, remove or disqualify any submissions it deems inappropriate, unfit in presentation or completion and to, if need be limit the individual artists submission based on total number of submissions to give everyone a chance to contribute. Submitting does not guarantee being selected. Unselected works will be returned. We will do everything we can to have your piece auctioned the night of the auction, time permitting.

Artworks may be displayed at locations around Windsor prior to the auction for publicity purposes and may be shown on television and print media pre-event news stories and advertisements. Oneday dreams will take every possible effort to protect the handling of art pieces but cannot be held responsible for any damage occurred in transport or hanging. We will promise to handle your work with the same love that you would.
